

Protect and expand Low Power FM Radio. Neither Tennessee nor Georgia, states where I've lived, has diverse radio offerings that serve the public. Very narrow offerings. Very narrow programming. Radio-station owners/managers have commandeered/stolen the public's airwaves for a profitable racket geared to the lowest common denominator and should be sued under RICO. The public is not being served and has no real voice. Fix that and also expand Low Power FM Radio. --
Donna Locke